Dear Claude:

The Elders here have decided not to have a regular gospel meeting in 1962. They were very interested in your coming to be with us but decided against such an effort on the part of any preacher. We will be having some type of lectureship later in the year.

The Elders here are interested in having you return to Cookeville and preach on a Sunday during 1962. I realize that all of your time is probably taken in meetings. If, however, you should have some Sundays available, the Elders would like for you to come and preach at all three services. The following dates are open for 1962: June 24, July 22, September 2, and September 16.

If at all possible, I hope you can come for the brethren are interested in having you be with them on any one of these Sundays.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
